

Resources for Online OT

By Durand OT's Jessica Peel and Kate Usher

Directions: Below are a list of various resources for completing online sessions. A short description is included with each link. Some activities can be completed virtually while others have printable versions. There are a variety of resources which are tailored all levels of performance. Please select one that is most appropriate for your student. Try to foster as much independence as possible, but either cues or physical assistance can be provided to help student be successful. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to email us:
